Train with Confidence

If you are looking for a highly trained instructor for your pistol instruction, you've come to the right place. Denny Magnusson has multiple certifications and licenses and attended professional training programs all over the country. Since 1996 he has been a ND test administrator for ND concealed carry permits. He is also licensed to instruct in Minnesota and Utah. With a long training resume, Denny can provide you training for your personal or business protection.

Amateurs train until they get it right- professionals train until they can't get it wrong!
