Course offerings include the NRA's Refuse to be a Victim, Shooting Basics and Personal Protection Inside the Home. Safe gun handling, holster presentation, tactical issues, practical every day issues and learning how to avoid a Critical Incident from the onset. G&G trains new to intermediate shooters with special emphasis on teaching children and women. G&G has partnered with Bearing Arms Against Domestic Violence to provide support, training and encouragement to victims of domestic violence. Contact us for more information. Children are a little anxious yet at the same time eager to try new things. G&G emphasizes safety first then provides an environment that is fun and challenging without making it intimidating. Instructing children is fun for us too, as instructors as they are always asking questions.
